PT NOTES

Last Saturday I had the privilege to officiate Jimmy & Laura's wedding & to bring a message from the Word. I had shared a similar message at Reuben & Hannah Dale's wedding in the fall. I did a brief reflective word on John 1:1-5.

Well, it seemed to resonate with a few of the folks. This generated some very interesting conversations. I know one person, prior to leaving the church, started talking about the visual impact of Father, Son & Holy Spirit and their dance around us. This conversation centered on Jimmy & Laura realizing that they are the central focus of the Trinity; personally and as a couple.

I John 4:19 says, "We love because he first loved us." We see that Jesus took on our humanity to bring us back into right relationship with Father.

During the reception several of Jimmy's family members gathered around me to talk about the ceremony and the message. "It was so relaxed & personal," they said. "The message was so easy to understand." They had never realized how God was so relational towards them. They had a picture of God needing to be pleased with them first, before they could approach Him.

So then I said, "Where do you see yourself in your relationship with the Trinity?" Their eyes got big as they thought, & I gently suggested that they are in the middle of their dance too! You are their objection of affection. You just need to respond to them in faith. It led to more conversation and I even had time to pray for them to let God speak life to them! They were blessed by Jesus!
